OBDURACY OF BOTH SIDES

Railroads Begin to Put Embargo On Food Supplies

WALKOUT IS IMMINENT

First Effort in Congress to Force President's Program Through Ends In Snarl.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 30—District Court Judge Sears this afternoon issued an order restraining trainmen employed on the Union Pacific railroad from striking Labor Day.

Washington, Aug. 30—The first formal effort of Congress to rush through legislation to prevent the strike of 400,000 railroad employes, set for Monday mornng, ended temporarily in a snarl today when bitter charges were made that certain Senators are "attempting to make political capital out of a disastrous situation."

Coincident with the beginning of the effort in Congress to prevent the great strike came emphatic statements from representatives of the trainmen that not even the passage of the measures advocated by the President will be sufficient to stop the walkout.

Action to head off the strike must be taken by the railroads, the men's leaders say. An eight-hour law by Congress merely will mean litigation and delay; an eight-hour agreement by the railroads will become effective at once. The men want action now and not litigation, their leaders say.

From every section of the country reports come that the railroads already have placed in effect an embargo on shipments of perishable freight. Only such freight will be received as can be delivered before Sunday.

Washington, Aug. 30—President Wilson yesterday called upon congress to aid in preventing the threatened railway strike. In a message, delivered in person before a joint session of the Senate and the House, he announced that he had failed to bring about an amicable solution of the controversy, and that the railroad brotherhoods had set September 4 as the date for a general strike of trainmen, and submitted a program of legislation to meet the situation.

Last night he returned to Capitol Hill to confer with the House leaders on the procedure that will be the most expeditious. The meeting took place in Speaker Clark's room. Present in addition to the Speaker were Chairman Adamson, of the Interstate Commerce Committee; majority Leader Kitchen and minority Leader Mann.

President Wilson consumed just 21 minutes in delivering his address. He recommended:

Enlargement and administrative reorganization of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

An eight-hour day for all railroad employes engaged in operating trains in interstate traffic.

A Congressional commission to study results of the application of the eight-hour day to railroad operation alike for the men and for the roads.

An instruction from Congress to the Interstate Commerce Commission to consider what just increase in freight rates the railroads would be entitled to, if any, due to the eight-hour day.

An amendment of the Federal mediation, conciliation and arbitration laws to provide for a full public investigation before a strike or lockout may be lawfully attempted.

Granting the President power in case of military necessity to seize and operate such portions of the railways as may be required for military use; to draft into the military service such train crews and administrative officials as circumstances may require.

TALKS WITH ADVERTISERS

DIDN'T BELIEVE IN ADVERTISING, BUT—HE ADVERTISED.

What is advertising? It is simply this: Making known to others facts you wish them to know.

Occasionally one will meet a man who says he doesn't believe in advertising and yet his own actions prove that he does believe in it.

For instance, there was a man in a certain town who announced very emphatically that he didn't believe in advertising of any kind; it didn't help at all, he said. One night a burglar broke into his house and grabbed him by the throat. The man started in on a most vigorous advertising campaign at once by yelling at the top of his voice, "Robbers!" "Murder!" "Police!"

It was the first time he had ever advertised, but he did it and it helped. The right kind of advertising always helps.

Gazette advertising might not bring in the police in the middle of the night but it will help bring in business day time or evening.

Use the want advertising column. It has brought results for others and can do so for you.

One insertion (not over 25 words) 25 cents; two insertions 40 cents; three insertions 50 cents; six times $1.00.

KAISER SHOWS HIS ANXIETY

Facing Crisis, He Calls on Von Hindenburg to Lead Army

MANY ARE DISMISSED

German Diplomats Are Ousted for Responsibility of Roumania's Entry Into War.

London Aug. 30,—Radical changes in German military and diplomatic leadership were made by the Kaiser following Roumania's appearance in the war drama as a new enemy.

Dispatches from Berlin today not only confirmed the dismissal of Gen. Falkenhayn as chief of the German general staff, but reported Field Marshal Mackensen in all probability will succeed von Hindenburg in supreme command of Austro-German armies on the Russian and Roumanian fronts.

Von Hindenburg has been appointed chief of the general staff, succeeding Falkenhayn.

Copenhagen, Aug. 30.—Germany has realized that the entry of Rodmania into the war may prove a death blow to Austria and that the Kaiser's armies may soon have to fight to prevent the allied forces from making an onslaught on German soil.

This is the interpretation placed here on the action of Emperor William today in dismissing Gen. von Falkenhayn from his post as chief of staff of the German armies and appointing in his place Field Marshal von Hindenburg, to whom the Emperor always has turned when the future has looked black for the fatherland.

It has been apparent in German circles for several weeks that the situation in Austria-Hungary was very precarious, and it is believed here now that the Kaiser's action in giving supreme command to Von Hindenburg is preparatory to a new alignment of the Teuton forces to provide for a possible collapse on the part of Austria.

Count Karolyi, head of the Hungarian opposition party, has been making vigorous efforts to bring about a separation of the Austrian and Hungarian armies, with a view. it is asserted, of enabling Hungary to ask for a separate peace.

ELOPEMENT REPORTED

Former Alexandrian Alleged to Have Deserted Wife and Child for old Sweetheart.

According to a letter received in Baltimore from Mrs. Litchford, of Alexandria, by Mrs. Florence Anna Baum, of the monumental city, her husband, Charles H. Baum, has left her and eloped with a sweetheart of his youth, Mrs. Litchford's daughter Marguerite Eareheart, 16 years old.

Baum, who is 24 years old, spent his boyhood in Alexandria and married when he went to Baltimore. His wife and 2 year old daughter, Elizabeth, spent a few weeks in Carroll county, Md., with Mrs. Baum's mother, Mrs. Anna Lehmayer, recently, and Mrs. Litchford's letter was awaiting her when she returned. The letter said that Baum has visited Marguerite a week ago on his motorcycle, had taken her for a ride and had never returned. Mrs. Litchford has notified the police of Alexandria and Washington to watch for her daughter and Baum, and Mrs. Baum says little Elizabeth has been crying for her father ever since she came home.

Mrs. Litchford's daughter has been missing for a number of days from her home in this city, 1005 Duke street, and it was first thought she was going to visit her father, J. H. Eareheart, who lives in Hagerstown, Md. Mrs. Litchford was divorced from Eareheart several years ago and married again. Marguerite is her daughter by her former husband.

At the Alexandria police headquarters it was stated that Mrs. Litchford had said that for a number of days her daughter had been talking of wanting to see her father, and that was why it was thought when she was found to be missing by Mr. and Mrs. Eareheart, that she had gone to Hagerstown, but later reports said that the young woman had been seen leaving with Baum on a motorcycle, riding on a back seat, and the whereabouts of either are unknown.

Late on Monday night Hngh Reed fractured the skull of his brother- in-law, Frank McInturff, with an ax, in defense of his own life, at the John Jennings place, near Browntown, five miles from Front Royal. A feud long had existed, and Saturday the men had a desperate fight. On Monday night McInturff made for Reed with an ax, when Reed defended himself, with the result mentioned. A piece of the fractured skull two and a half by two and a half inches was removed. McInturff is at the point of death. Reed has not been arrested.

Big crowds made the three boat trips to Marshall Hall yesterday with Lone Star Camp, No. 1, American Indian Guards, on their third annual excursion to that resort. A feature of the evening trip was a concert by the Indian Guard band.

Everything is in readiness for two of the biggest outings of the summer tomorrow, Martha Washington Chapter being scheduled to give their annual excursion to Marshall Hall, and the second Elks excursion of the summer to Colonial Beach also being slated to take place. The first excursion this summer of Alexandria Lodge of Elks, an annual feature, was such a success, that the Elks promptly decided to give another, and it is expected that as large crowds will attend the second as the first. Dancing on the boat each way is an especial feature, Perry's orchestra to furnish the music.

MR. HARRISON TALKS.

Says Time Has Come to Test Whether American People Are to be Governed by Unregulated Force or Law.

Mr. Fairfax Harrison, President of the Southern Railway Company, said today:

"I gave my individual adherence to the unanimous determination of the Railway Presidents recently in conference in Washington, only after taking the advice of many representative men in various walks in life in all parts of the South and with all other manifestations of public opinion of the South constantly in view. I include in this my knowledge that the employes of the Southern Railway Company who are involved and who still have my respect and whose welfare is of the utmost personal concern to me have not had reason to be and in fact have not been discontent as a class. I did not take action hastily or with prejudice but after my own best and most deliberate judgment and with full consciousness of my responsibility. The easiest course would have been to have accepted the proposals made to the railways, to have waived the principle of arbitration and to have imposed a heavy, new, and in my opinion, unnecessary burden on southern commerce, with the inevitable consequence of postponement of the full development of the railways for the largest service of the whole people of the South. There are some who think that immediate and temporary peace at such a price is desirable. I am not one of them —though God knows I am for peace —and have no illusions as to what industrial war means when threatened on the scale of the present crisis. In my judgment, the time has come to test again whether the American people are to be governed by unregulated force or by law. I risk my own reputation on that issue and I count on the supprot of all sound and conservative opinion in the South to counsel patience and endurance of temporary inconvenience while the test is being made. The decision must lie with deliberate and advised public opinion crystalized in law. Whatever it may be when so declared, I will, of course, abide by it."

Because of the impending railroad strike, two railroads have issued freight embargo notices. Other roads are expected to follow suit. The New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad yesterday announced that all freight received hereafter will be subject to delay, loss, or damage, except freight that can be transported and delivered not later than September 4. The Missouri, Kansas, and Texas Railway will announce today an embargo on all perishable goods and will not receive cattle shipments unless they can be delivered on or before Sunday morning.

WOMAN SHOOTS MAN

Wouldb-e Murderer and Her Victim Are Mutes.

Washington, D. C. August 30.—While a dozen residents of Takoma Park looked on, Mrs. Cora E. Schuescler, a mute, shot Gilbert Erickson, another mute, in front of the town postoffice at 7:30 this morning. The wounded man started to run, but fell a few hundred feet from the scene of the shooting. The woman was arrested. At the hospital it was found that the bullet entered the back and lodged near the heart. Physicians say Erickson's condition is critical.

The only inkling of the cause of the shooting which the police were able to get from the woman was the following statement she signed at the police station:

"I shot Gilbert Erickson, and he ruined my home and my husband."

The wounded man is said to be a clerk in the auditor's office of the Postoffice Department. He is 37 years old, and has a wife and four children.

FINGER PRINTS ON THROAT

Odd Experiment Reveals Evidence Slain Woman Was Choked.

Marlinton, W. Va., Aug. 30—To determine the cause of death of Frances H. Howard, the suffragist, whose husband, Dr. Oliver A. Howard, is held on the charge of killing her, one of the physicians hit upon a novel method. The skin on the neck was drawn back, the adipose tissue distended and electric light reflected upon it. The result was the revealing of the print of a thumb and three fingers as clearly as in a picture on a screen. The conclusion reached by the physicians was that Mrs. Howard's death had been caused by the grip of a powerful right hand on her throat, which by a sudden jerk had dislocated the top vertebrae and caused immediate death.

Various residents of Marlinton now tell of Dr. Howard showing them how easy it would be to choke a man to death. He would illustrate by a grasp on the neck identical with that which apparently killed his wife.

The doctor sticks to the story concerning a drug. In his cell he angrily denied ever having quarreled with his wife on the subject of suffrage or anything else.

"Memphis driven ashore by heavy seas at San Domingo City west of light house at 4:30 p. m. Has lines ashore and is getting crew off. Heavy sea came up very suddenly. Ship was unable to get steam in time to save her.

"Twenty men of the liberty party were drowned on their way back to the ship. Castine dragged close in, but did not strike and got out to sea. No other casualties known. Memphis will be total loss. Expect to save everybody on board."

Santo Domingo, Aug. 30.— The United States Cruiser Memphis, formerly the Tennessee, was driven on the rocks off the outer harbor yesterday by a sudden and gigantic ground swell. It is believed that many lives have been lost. The vessel was literally hurled from the waters onto the rocks.

All the fires beneath the boilers were extinguished by the sudden inrush of water. This left her at the mercy of the sea.

The United States gunboat Castine escaped a similar fate by putting to sea. The two warships were units in the cruiser squadron of Rear Admiral Charles F. Pond. The squadron has been in West Indian waters several months, due to the unsettled international conditions on Haiti.

The Memphis was the flagship of the squadron.

There have been serious weather disturbances throughout the West Indies for the past few days. These culminated today in a swell which played havoc with shipping.

The harbor here is considered one of the most dangerous road leads in the world. It is open and affords but little protection to ships.

90 DAYS FOR THEFT

Negro Seizes Fifteen Dollars From Stranger and is Chased by Victim.

Early last night some ecitement was caused in the Second ward by one negro chasing another. Officer Gill soon entered the contest and succeeded in capturing Henry Howard, close at whose heels Monroe Williams had been keeping. The latter charged Howard with robbing him of $15.

After reaching the station house Williams alleged that he came here yesterday afternoon from Georgetown with $26 in his pockets, and during his stay in this city he visited the "Petersburg" neighborhood, where he met Howard and another negro. His story, abridged somewhat, was to the effect that the accused "snatched" $15 out of his hand and with it a handkerchief when Howard and the negro who was with him ran. Williams followed close in their wake, crying "Stop thief!" The fugitives ran into Market alley and in close proximity to the station house, where officer Gill caught Howard. His companion, however, escaped.

The accused was brought before the Police Court this morning, when he denied the charge made by Williams, but failed to explain why he was running when arrested. William's handkerchief was found upon Howard's person, together with the torn portions of a dollar note which Williams alleged Howard tore when he pulled the money out of his hand. Howard was sentenced to serve ninety days in jail.

Last night also at the Norton Memorial adjoining St. Paul's Church a meeting of the various committees for the campaign took place.

A deed was recorded in the office of the clerk of courts today, transferring two houses and lots on east side of Henry street, between Pendleto nand Wythe, from Benjamin F. Lucas to Maggie Lee Lucas.

BLEASE HAS BIG LEAD

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 30—Unofficial scattering returns from about half the counties of South Carolina last night gave Cole L. Blease a big lead over Governor Richard I. Manning and Robert A. Cooper for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

The vote stood: Blease, 11,000; Manning, 6,600; Cooper, 6,000.

Representative James Hay, of Virginia, chairman of the committee on military affairs, yesterday sent his resignation to Speaker Clark, to take effect September 30. Representative Hay recently was appointed associate justice of the court of appeals, but it was understood he would serve until the session adjourned.

PENALTY FOR SPEEDING

Louis Glassman Alleged to have Run Auto Over a Square in Nine Seconds

Sergeant Scott and Officer Thompson between eleven and twelve o'clock last night witnessed a record run of Louis Glassman in an automobile on upper King street. The sergeant timed the automobile and saw that it covered a square in nine seconds, when those operating machines are compelled by law to use eighteen seconds. The evidence of the officers was incontrovertible, and Glassman, in his defense, alleged he was conveying his brother-in-law who was sick to the depot that he might take a south bound train. When cross-questioned, he asknowledged his brother-in-law had been in his house since nine o'clock, showing he had had ample time to have transported him to the depot without being forced to rush his machine through the streets at a dangerous speed at midnight. The officers alleged they called to him to stop, and that he paid no attention to them. The latter procured another automobile and intercepted the "flyer" at the union station.

The court told the accused that the law now in force was enacted by the Legislature of Virginia, and that the justice and the policemen were obligated to enforce it. There was but one way to dispose of the case and that was to impose the fine—ten dollars. Glassman paid the fine, and on his way out of the room glanced at Officer Thompson and said, "Never mind, I'll get you." He was seized and again made to face the court, when he was asked what he meant by his threat. Glassman said he meant if he saw the officer derelict in any way or violating any rule of the Police Board he would report him, but disclaimed any intention or menacing the minion of the law in any way. The court told the disgruntled man that, as a citizen, under the present ouster law, he could make charges but that no threats would be tolerated; and further that if guilty of contempt or threats he might be compelled to give bond for his future good behavior. After denials of threats in the way the officer interprted him, he was allowed to depart.

Officer Campbell also witnessed the violation of the speed law by Glassman.

RELIC OF ANCIENT DAYS.

While the grand jury in New York was returning two indictments for assault and one for white slavery against John Hausenreiter, a salesman, in the district attorney's white slave crusade, Mr. Swann told of a sensational dinner attended recently by a high city official and a number of men, which developed into an orgy.

"There was such a dinner," said Mr. Swann, "and all the men who attended were very wealthy. Assistant District Attorney Smith added that the climax of the dinner was the taking of a picture of a young woman as 'September Morn.'"

Other evidence which will be produced will refer to white slavery charges, some of a revolting nature, which shows that licentiousness practiced in ancient times is decidedly in evidence in our day in some places.

The dinner referred to above is akin to another famous feast which caused so much comment years ago, bringing to mind passages in the history of the Borgias.

Centuries before the advent of the Christian era such practices were not only common but legal. It would be improper to describe scenes at orgies vouched for by Herodotus and other ancient historians, which were enacted many centuries ago. The picture of Belshazzar's Feast was refused admission to the United States on account of its lewd nature. Yet the customs which prevailed in the time of that ill starred Babylonian king, show that it was a faithful representation of the orgy which was in progress when Darius turned the course of the river Euphrates and captured the city.

Boccacio's Decameron centuries later depicted the manners and customs of parts of continental Europe in his day. Occasionally in the twentieth century men and women are found enacting scenes which are read with disgust in ancient chronicles.

SANE CELEBRATION.

We agree with the Richmond Virginian which says the American Medical Association has conferred a public benefit by compiling the results of the campaign which has been waged for years for a safe and sane celebration of the Fourth of July.

It has recently made public the statistics gathered from the last celebration of the day. This year the observance of the day cost thirty lives, against 466 in 1903, the first year in which complete figures were obtained.

Not one case of tetanus was reported and not a single instance of a person being blinded by gun powder appears. This is a notable improvement, as an outcome of a sensible campaign.

The Gazette was [illegible] the first papers in the [illegible] and has encouragement of the laws [illegible] and municipal, against the dangerous procedures of over-enthusiastic people in celebrating Christmas and the Fourth of July. A score of years ago it was dangerous to appear on most streets during the celebration of the mid-summer and mid winter holidays. Cannoncrackers, containing dynamite were thrown in every direction, by drunken men and thoughtless boys, and traffic was generally brought to a standstill, as no sane man would bring horses into the streets on such occasions.

There has always been law enough in the state and city code to punish persons who endeavor to bring about pandemoniac scenes on the two great American holidays. The practice of celebrating these days in so improper a manner has gradually decreased in recent years, and many people who at one time strangely imagined these holidays could not be observed save with explosives are finding better and safer ways of manifesting their spirituality and patriotism.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

Reviewing the record of the Democratic administration, Senator Reed, of Missouri, told the Senate yesterday that the Republican party demanded a change, which, if granted by the people, would mean the precipitation of America into war and the undoing of national prosperity built up by industrial, commercial and banking reforms during the term of President Wilson.

"If Mr. Hughes is to be elected to the Presidency," said Senator Reed, "then it is notice to all the world that America has repudiated Wilson's policy of peace for the Roosevelt-Hughes policy of war. Let the issue be not misunderstood. We know, the world knows, that Woodrow Wilson will maintain peace unless the nation's honor is assailed. Thoughtful men know that a President advised by Roosevelt, in accord and agreement with Roosevelt, will stir up war if war be possible."

Senator Reed declared Mr. Hughes, "in complete accord with a man who has persistently insisted we should have intervened against Germany when she invaded Belgium; in complete accord with a man who refers in coarse language to the President as a 'mollycoddle,' a man of 'weasel words;' in complete accord with a man who falsely asserts that we are bound by treaty to engage in the conflict against Germany; in complete accord with a man who demands universal military service and war preparation upon a scale not hitherto dreamed of."

The Missouri senator gave figures to show that bank deposits increased in President Wilson's first three years 29.5 per cent. or $5,985,464.675; that bank resources increased 37.6 per cent. or $7,699,400,000 and that bank resources reached an aggregate of $28,320,395,000.

"The actual increase under Wilson," said Senator Reed, "was nearly four times as great as under Roosevelt and almost three times as great as under Taft."

The above are facts no one can controvert, and they should be considered by every American voter.

100 PER CENT. CANDIDATE.

It is palpable that the Hughes campaign is a disappointment to the Republicans. They would not run the very serious risk of billing Mr. Roosevelt for a speech in Maine if the candidate were making himself interesting. But the Republican managers cannot be insensible to the danger of a speech by Mr. Roosevelt in the ostensible interest of a man who is unable to speak definitely and precisely on any subject except the tariff.

A contemporary says it would be safer for the "100 per cent. candidate" to put the "punch" in the campaign himself than to let Mr. Roosevelt do it. The call for something explicit and precise from Mr. Hughes is so loud that he is likely to lose as much by his pussy-foot methods as he could by any degree of candor.

Mr. Hughes is denouncing the President, and he asks the country to put him in Mr. Wilson's place because he is a better and wiser man. Before the country elects Mr. Hughes in place of Mr. Wilson it has a right to know whether Mr. Hughes would do more than Mr. Wilson, or less. The "100 per cent. candidate" has not yet told us.

It would not only be creditable, but we believe it would be judicious, for Mr. Hughes to cease to be a 100 per cent. candidate, and to become not more than 90 per cent. candidate and not less than 10 per cent. an honest man.

The Kaiser has dismissed Gen. Erich von Falkenhayn and appointed Field Marshal von Hindenburg, chief of the general staff.

VIOLATING SPEED LAW

Five violators of the Henrico speed ordinance were fined $25 and costs yesterday morning by Magistrate T. J. Puryear, of Henrico. All of the persons fined were caught speeding on Cary Street Road.

A Richmond paper in commenting upon present conditions says:

Laudable as is the desire of the Richmond Automobile Club to lend a hand in checking the growing danger from reckless automobile operation by drunken drivers, the club is badly advised as to the means it is said to favor. The executive committee of the organization, it is reported, considers recommending an ordinance that would make a jail sentence obligatory. Unfortunately for the public, Council is without authority to adopt such an ordinance; it can only provide a jail sentence in case of failure to pay such fine as may provide. As a matter of fact, there is plenty of law on the subject, under the State Code and the common law. It wouldn't be necessary to proceed under an ordinance to impose a jail sentence on a drunken, reckless driver. And virtually all sensible people agree this should be done; the difficulty heretofore has been to instill the necessary courage into those to whom the public looks for protection. The fault is not with the law, but with its administration.

INDEMNITIES.

(Baltimore Sun.)

The remark of the Vossiche Zeitung, "The more enemies Germany has the better chances we will have of securing indemnities after the war," indicates the survival of one of the strangest of German illusions. The case with which an enormous indemnity was squeezed out of prostrate France fostered the idea that Germany could make warfare profitable, not only compelling her enemies to pay her war bills, but fill her chests with gold.

The rapid sweep through Belgium and the occupation of Northern France, of Russian Poland, of Serbia and Montenegro have enabled the Teutons to exact a rich tribute from enemy territory. But the plan of crushing France died with the battle of the Marne; the possibility of invading England was destroyed by the failure of the attempt to capture Calais and Dunkirk. After the "Russian drive" the Slavs came back with tremendous force and the Russian flood is pouring into Austria.

The "iron ring" is closing around Germany and Austria, and the Central Powers are on the defensive. If there ever was any hope of collecting vast indemnities from the Entente Allies, it hasgone glimmering.

On the other hand, the attempt to drive the Germans out of Northern France has so far failed.

It is possible that the Germans will still be intrenched on French soil, will still hold Belgium when the war ends. Germany and Austria may be defeated, but there is little likelihood that they will be overrun. And indemnity can be collected only from nations that have been conquered and crushed.

From present indications, each country will have to pay its own bills for the present war. If the Germans still cherish the delusion that their enormous debts can be saddled upon their enemies, they are due for a rude awakening.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Roumania has already put an army of 600,000 men in the field, supported by 1,000 guns.

An earthquake in southern Formosa Monday destroyed 500 houses and caused 30 deaths.

A dispatch says it is reported in Holland, that 106 persons were killed in Dresden in riots caused by the sentence of Karl Liebknecht, the Socialist. The crowds shouted "Down with war."

Six men in an automobile descended upon Homer, a small village 15 miles east of Champagne, Ill., yesterday and blew the safes in two banks, escaping with loot estimated at between $8,000 and $10,000.

If the railway strike takes place September 4, it is believed that while members of the telegraphers' union will not actively strike, union telegraphers may refuse to transmit orders to nonunion crews.

"The more enemies Germany has, the better chances we will have of securing indemnities after the war," says the Vossische Zeitung, of Berlin, in discussing the Italian and Roumanian declarations of war.

Summing up the result of the British offensive on the Somme front, the British War Office announces that since July 1, 266 officers, 15,208 men, 86 guns, 160 machine guns, besides other material, have been captured by the British.

Richard Croker, former head of the Tammany organization in New York, went under the knife at Dublin, yesterday for an operation of the facial bone which injured his eyesight. It is stated that the operation was successful.

Germany has begun to make preparations for the entry of Greece into the war. German diplomatic circles now regard it a certainty that the Hellenic kingdom will join the allies. Greek residents of Germany have begun to leave.

The Navy Department yesterday advertised for bids for the construction of four battleships, four scout cruisers, twenty destroyers and thirty submarines, immediate construction of which is provided for in the naval appropriation bill.

Robert A. Beatty, 67 years old, a merchant of Charlottesville, shot and killed his wife in a jealous rage in their home Monday. After committing the crime he sent his daughter to call in the neighbors, and notify the police. Several years ago Beatty, it is said, made an attempt to kill a former wife, who afterwards divorced him. He is being held by the coroner for wilful murder.

While strenuous efforts were being made at Washington yesterday to avert the railroad strike, Chicago was threatened with a general strike of freight handlers. Three hundred and fifty of the Burlington's handlers already are out, and officials of the union threatened to call out 6,000 more. The Burlington's refusal to recognize the union precipated the walk-out, according to the men.

While ascending from the tracks of the railroad bridge across the Potomac River, better known as the Long bridge, to the engine house, 50 feet on top of the structure, last night at 9 o'clock, to open the draw, George Callahan, 47 years old, of Washington, employed as the night engineer, fell from the top round of the ladder to the tracks below, and was instantly killed. His skull was crushed.

Chicago's boy banditry claimed another policeman victim yesterday. Patrolman Joseph Cullerton is possibly fatally wounded, and Howard O'Hara, 16, with a "record," is being held in jail. Cullerton was attempting to arrest the boy when he whipped out a gun and shot the officer through the lung. O'Hara's cousin, Patrick O'Hara, 18, was killed Sunday in a stolen automobile. At that time Howard escaped and Cullerton was sent to arrest him.

Six thousand leather workers in 100 shops in New York went on strike yesterday for higher wages, a shorter working week, and a closed shop. Union leades predict more than 12,000 workers in the industry will be out within a few days. The workers picked the busiest season of the year in the trade to strike. Their action will paralyze the manufacture of women's handbags, vanity cases, kid gloves, and many other needed articles.

That Washington may have lightless nights and be deprived of street car service owing to lack of coal in the event of a strike, is a possibility, but not a probability, unless the union men decide to stay out for a great length of time. Many of the various utilities companies, including the Washington Gas Light Company, the Potomac Electric Power Company, the Washington Railway and Electric Company and the Capital Traction Co., are well supplied with coal, according to statements made at the offices of the different companies.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

The death of Rev. J. H. Amiss, one of the best-beloved members of the Virginia Methodist Conference, is momentarily expected in Norfolk. Dr. Amiss, who is 81 years of age, was stricken on Friday night in his left side with a second stroke of paralysis and he has never regained consciousness.

Several nights ago a Chesapeake and Ohio train ran into a herd of cattle belonging to the Crenshaw farm, near Orange, and killed 13 cows, and crippled 23. Most of them were dairy cows. The gate between the railroad and the field where the cattle were pastured had been left open, and the cattle wandered out on the track and were grazing when struck.

State Health Commissioner E. G. Williams, who has charge of enforcement of the quarantine against infantile paralysis, has ruled that children under sixteen years old coming from New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania may pass through Virginia en route to some other state provided they do not stop at any point longer than is necessary to make connections. He also ruled that children who journey to Virginia by a route which takes them through any of the infected states do not come within the scope of the quarantine if their journey is a continuous one, and if they have not come from any one of the three states within a period of two weeks before starting.

An unidentified negro yesterday attempted to assault Mrs. Charles Christman at her home at Riverton, three miles from Front Royal. Mrs. Chrisman's screams brought neighbors, and the negro fled. He later was captured and tried before Squire Duncan, when he pleaded guilty, and was held for the grand jury. He is in jail at Front Royal but refuses to give his name or place of residence. Lynching is feared.

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for seven years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

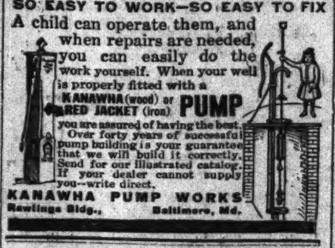

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

AUCTION SALES

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE, IMPROVED RIVER FRONT TRACT OF LAND KNOWN AS "COLLINGWOOD."

By virtue of authority vested in me by deed of trust dated April 2nd, 1915, from Clayton E. Emig and wife to me as Trustee, recorded in Liber W, No. 7, page 242, of the land records of Fairfax County, default having been made in the payment of the debt thereby secured, and in the performance of the covenants and conditions contained therein, and at the direction of the party secured thereby, I will offer for sale at public auction, on the premises at two o'clock, p. m., on Tuesday, the 5th, day of September, 1916, that tract of land situated in Mount Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Virginia, on the line of the Washington Virginia Railway, and bordering on the Potomac River, and bounded as follows:

BEGINNING at a point on the Potomac River at low water mark, thence North, eighty-three and one-fourth degrees; West fifteen and forty-six one hundredth chains to a stake in the lane or private road of said first parties, thence with the center of said road, south sixty-two degrees and five minutes; West, eight and fifty hundredth chains; North seventy-nine degrees and twenty-five minutes; West, twenty-seven and seventy hundredth chains to a small bridge; North sixty-eight degrees and forty minutes; West, ten and eighty hundredth chains to a stake in the center of the county road; thence with said County road South twenty and one-fourth degrees; West, sixteen and thirty hundredth chains to another stake in the center of said road; thence leaving said road with the line of Charles F. Wilkins, South sixty five degrees and thirty-five minutes; East, seventy and fifty hundredth chains to low water mark on the Potomac River, (passing a leaning Willow tree with top broken off, near high water mark) thence with the Potomac River shore at low water mark, in a Northerly course to the point or place of beginning; containing one hundred and fifty-six acres of land, more or less.

Subject to a deed of trust for three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), on one hundred (100) acres of the western portion of said tract, executed by Clayton E. Emig and wife, and duly of record amongst the land records of Fairfax County.

The property will first be offered in two separate parcels in the following order, to-wit:

First: The whole of the said tract of one hundred and fifty-six (156) acres, except about thirteen (13) acres conveyed by Clayton E. Emig to Lelia D. Emig, and described below. If the foregoing tract does not bring a sufficient amount to satisfy the said trust, taxes and expenses of sale, then

Second.: The remainder of said original tract comprising about thirteen (13) acres which was conveyed by Clayton E. Emig to Lelia D. Emig, and described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point on the Potomac River at low water mark, running thence North 83 1-4 degrees West 15 and 46-100 chains to a stake in the private lane or road of the party of the first part; thence running with the centre of said road South 62 degrees 5 minutes West, 8 and 50-100 chains excepting however, the triangle aggregating one-half acre sold to E. A. Thompson by agreement of October 26, 1915; thence running South 20 degrees 15 minutes West, a distance of 225 feet; thence running along line South 79 degrees 25 minutes, East in a straight course until said line intersects the Potomac River at low water mark; thence in a Northerly direction along the said River shore, and at low water mark of said Potomac River to the place of beginning. Containing about thirteen acres of land more or less.

If the said two parcels together do not bring a sufficient amount to pay the said deed of trust, taxes and expenses of sale, then the said property will be offered as a whole.

A deposit of one thousands dollars ($1,000.00) cash will be required when the property is knocked down to the purchaser, and ten days will be allowed for examination of title and completion of purchase.
